ORDER

Any motion to impose or extend the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(3) or (4) shall constitute a contested matter governed by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 and shall state: (1) in its title whether the movant is seeking relief on an “emergency” basis, i.e., on less than 20 days’ notice; (2) the specific creditors, if less than all creditors, against whom the movant is seeking to extend or impose the stay (the “Affected Creditors”); (3) whether the motion is intended to stop a foreclosure sale or similar action and, if so, the date on which such action is scheduled to occur; and (4) the specific change of circumstances in the financial or personal affairs of the debtor that has occurred since the dismissal of the next most previous case.

Any “emergency” motion to extend or impose the stay shall also state what efforts the movant has made to notify the Affected Creditors, including the address, telephone number, facsimile number and/or email address used to contact each Affected Creditors and the name of the person or persons with whom the movant has discussed the filing of the motion.

With respect to “emergency” motions, the movant shall prepare and tender to the Court a notice of the hearing and shall serve the notice on the Affected Creditors. Such notice, along with a copy of the motion, shall be served on the Affected Creditors via facsimile, hand delivery, email, or overnight mail if appropriate. The movant shall file a certificate of service showing such service on or before the scheduled hearing.
